

Stephen F. Austin Chapter, DRT NEWSLETTER

February, 2026

THE PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Hello, Ladies!

Wow, is it just me, or did winter choose violence over the weekend? I hope you all are safe and warm.

On January 19 we had a wonderful January meeting at the fabulous Chez Obermiller, and what a treat to have professor and author George Obermiller speak! Thank you again, Terri, for your hospitality. And, thank you Debi Pantalion, Cheryl Mazur, and Jan Redden for bringing a delicious lunch. If you liked the chicken chili as much as I did, hit up Jan for the recipe.

At the January meeting we also toasted Stephen F. Austin, on the (near) anniversary of his receipt of the land grant for the Old 300. I hope you will join us in thinking about his sacrifices and hardships in shaping Texas as it is today. For better or worse, Texas is ours, and we love it.

Speaking of upcoming anniversaries, Monday, March 2 is the 190th anniversary of Texas Independence. I will mention it again in next month's newsletter, but I hope you will be ready to show your Texas pride at an event, or by flying your Texas flag.

Don't forget to RSVP for the upcoming field trip to Washington on the Brazos! Send $30 via Zelle, or bring me a check or cash. Just make sure you're on the list- I don't want to leave anyone behind. Make sure you have your red Texas History passport, or you can pick one up onsite. We will visit three sites all in the same area, and have lunch at R Place Restaurant in Washington. As usual, we will meet in the parking lot of Northwest Recreation Center and leave as close to 8am as humanly possible.

And, soon it will once again be time to start collecting dues for our beloved Stephen F. Austin Chapter, Daughters of the Republic of Texas. Our Treasurer Extraordinaire Sherry Crickmer will start sending invoices on April 1. If you are so moved, though, you may go ahead and pay your dues via Zelle to stephenfaustin@drinfo.org. Dues for full DRT members is $65; associate and affiliate memberships are $15.

Finally, please please ask your 4th graders, 7th graders, and high school seniors to submit essays for our contests! Historically speaking, if they submit an essay, it is highly likely they will make some money. It would be a shame if we had our lovely Scholarship Luncheon and no one got a check.

Stay safe, stay warm, and until we meet again Happy Trails!

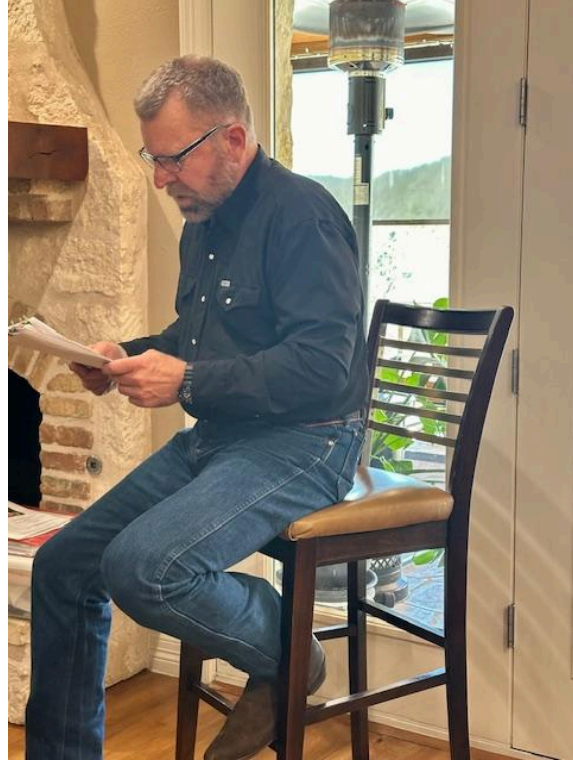

-Milli Pope

This Month in Republic of Texas History

February, 1836

This month, the Republic of Texas is in the midst of a desperate struggle for independence as the Mexican army, led by General Antonio López de Santa Anna, has launched a major offensive to suppress the rebellion. On February 23, Santa Anna's forces will arrive in San Antonio de Bxar and begin the 13-day siege of the Alamo, prompting defenders like William B. Travis to issue famous pleas for reinforcements that will eventually rally the Texian cause. Simultaneously, the earliest phases of the Runaway Scrape have begun as settlers in south-central Texas, hearing reports of the advancing Mexican military, have abandoned their homes in a panicked flight toward the eastern border for safety. This pivotal month also sees General José de Urrea achieve a victory at the Battle of San Patricio on February 27, further intensifying the atmosphere of crisis that will lead to the formal declaration of independence just days later in March.

Texas Honor Days:

Texas Statehood Day: February 19

The legal entry of Texas into the Union was 29 December 1845, but the decade-old Republic of Texas did not formally transfer its authority to the new State of Texas until 19 February 1846. DRT celebrates 19 February 1846 as Statehood Day and as a Texas Honor Day.
